

THE CORONERS' SOCIETY

OF ENGLAND & WALES

THE 2019 CONFERENCE OF
THE CORONERS SOCIETY OF ENGLAND AND WALES
President: Caroline Beasley-Murray, HM Senior Coroner Essex invites

lawyers, doctors, health workers, pathologists, social workers, police officers and 'other professionals'

to join them at the Five Lakes Hotel CM9 8HX to consider

THE CHALLENGE OF TERRORISM

on

FRIDAY 27 SEPTEMBER 2019

Cost: £55 (this includes lunch together with morning & afternoon coffee and tea)

NB Solicitors attending are able to claim CPD credits

Please complete and return the attached booking form to book a place.

Book now, for places are limited.

RESPONDING TO THE CHALLENGE OF TERRORISM

9.00 – 9.10 am	The President: Terrorism and Treason in Essex
9.10 -10.00	Terrorism and the Law: Max Hill QC, former Independent Reviewer of Terrorism Legislation; now Director of Public Prosecutions
10.05 – 10.55	Terrorism and the Police: Cressida Dick CBE, QPM, Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police
10.55 – 11.15	Coffee Break
11.15 – 11.55	Terrorism and Intelligence: What's New? Nicholas Alston CBE, DL, Chair of the Policy Institute of the East of England at Anglia Ruskin University, non-executive Director of the National Crime Agency, and former senior UK Government security official
12.00 – 12.55	The challenge of investigating the Skripal Novichok attack: A speaker from the Metropolitan Police Counter-Terrorism Command (SO15)
1.00 – 2.00	Lunch
2.00 - 2.50	Terrorism and CT scanning: Dr Curtis Offiah, a forensic neuroradiologist at the Royal London Hospital
2.55-3.45	Coping with the aftermath of major trauma in Essex and beyond: Prof Peter George Dziwulski, Head of St Andrew's Centre for plastic surgery and burns, Broomfield Hospital, Chelmsford
3.50- 4.10	Tea
4.10- 4.55	Dealing with the media at an inquest involving a terrorist or other major incident: Lorna Skinner, Matrix Chambers